WASHINGTON, March 26.—The senators and representatives from California are not at all pleased with the selection of the commission [illegible] an immigration treaty with China. They claim that they have been ignored because it is a subject that their constituents are interested in almost exclusively. [illegible] they have been given, but one member of the board, while two have been [illegible] know nothing of the situation [illegible] of California. They insist that no one can understand the Chinese question [illegible] has come in contact with that race, [illegible] learning by experience, is vastly different from learning from theory. On hearing the intruder, Brown arose, and as he did so, received a bullet in his thigh. He at once grappled with the would-be murderer, wrested the pistol from him and threw him down. The employes of the establishment hearing the shot rushed to Brown's assistance and held Bennett until a policeman arrived. Brown is editor and proprietor of the Globe leader of the reform party and senator of the dominion.

The London "Times" on the Monroe Doctrine.

LONDON, March 26.—The Times in an editorial comments as follows on the Panama ship canal: The Monroe doctrine, even in its most restricted form, has never been admitted into the law of nations. Certainly no such extreme interpretation has yet been attempted to be fastened upon it by Americans as it is made to bear in President Hayes' message to congress and the resolution of the senate committee of the house of representatives. An appeal to these two statements had the Colombian confederation itself taken charge of the project the United States would have been justified in prohibiting the work. That the United States by furnishing money should obtain a special right to watch over the safety and peaceable use of the new channel is what Europe and particularly Great Britain would most of all desire but the world is entitled to ask the United States to make up their minds whether to let De Lesseps do the thing himself with the money at his command or to charge them selves with the task.

PRESIDENTIAL TALK

REPORTS THAT GRANT WILL WITHDRAW

Edmunds Says that He will Not be a Candidate, etc

Hayes Talks in a General Way and Avoids the Main Question

SPECIAL DISPATCH TO THE OREGONIAN

BOSTON March 26.—The Advertiser has a dispatch from Washington stating that private information has been received that Grant will withdraw as a candidate before the Chicago convention.

Grant's Support Weakening—Reasons Why He may Decline the Contest.

CHICAGO March 26.—The News Grant organ has a special dispatch from Washington which says that the undercurrent of public events has wonderfully changed public opinion here within a week as to the candidacy of Gen Grant. I find that while his friends openly talk of his nomination as certain, they speak of it in private as something not likely to occur for several reasons which may be summed up as follows: That Gen Grant has said repeatedly that he will not consent to become a candidate unless the nomination should be tendered to him as an expression of the unanimous wishes of his party. That there must be no fight, no party dissensions, no rupture of partisan ties, no wide spread antagonism. He has kept silent beyond this, but returning from Mexico after several weeks absence he finds himself bitterly opposed by factions led by prominent republican politicians. He is startled with the discovery that the antipathy against him is so strong as to produce a protest against his candidacy in the form of an anti third term party, in which are engaged many republican leaders. He is also made aware that a large number of newspapers of his party are against him. It is stated that he has notified his friends here that he will not for these reasons be a candidate and will shortly confirm the decision to the public.

The Grant Boomers Stand Firm.

WASHINGTON, March 26.—Third termers have been interviewed on the report of their weakening but gave no remote hints of a change of front. Don Cameron says there is no defection worth mention

Call for an Anti-Third Term Convention to Meet at St. Louis, May 6th.

ST. LOUIS, March 26.—The anti third term committee will publish a call to-morrow setting forth that profound interest is felt in the approaching presidential election, and alarm is felt at the purpose of some friends to commit the republican party to the dangerous third term policy. The address refers to the example of Washington and the injunction of Jefferson, and warmly approves the resolutions of the state conventions of New York, Pennsylvania and Ohio in 1875 all of which opposed a third term, and similar action of congress in December 1875. The nomination of Grant would be made only in total disregard of the principles of the republican party. This call is issued for a mass convention at St. Louis, May 6th to perfect thorough organization for expression of the will of the people against the principle of a third presidential term with a view to a constitutional amendment limiting the presidential tenure. All republicans in sympathy with the movement are invited.

Edmunds will not be a Candidate under any Circumstances.

WASHINGTON, March 26.—The report that Senator Edmunds has withdrawn the use of his name as presidential candidate is utterly discredited by his most intimate personal friends for the very good reason that he never considered himself in any sense a candidate contingent or otherwise, and has not up to this time regarded the use of his name as a serious matter. A member of the Vermont delegation said to-day that Edmunds had said to him within a week that the talk about his being a candidate was preposterous and absurd. He had no inclination and would not accept the position if every man in the United States should rise up and demand it. The member who furnished the conversation says it is his opinion that as the Edmunds boom continues to grow, the senator will quickly stop it by a refusal in the most positive manner to allow his name to be used and declaring that under no circumstances will he consent to become a candidate.

Two Sherman Delegates Chosen in North Carolina.

GOLDSBORO, March 26.—Two colored Sherman delegates were elected to the Chicago convention, after a struggle.

SIGNIFICANT EXPRESSIONS.

President Hayes Interviewed on the Presidential Question

SPECIAL DISPATCH TO THE OREGONIAN

CHICAGO, March 26.—A special from the Tribune's correspondent says: I have interviewed the President who refused to talk on the Presidential prospects of Sherman or Grant, but asked if Blaine's chances were not improving. The following conversation ensued

But Mr President you are not insensible of the fact that an emergency may arise in the Chicago convention that may make your own nomination desirable, not only desirable but a great party necessity. What if it should come to that complexion at last?

The President—That is a contingency that is not at all likely to arise and I don't anticipate any such event. My position in regard to accepting a second nomination under any circumstances is well understood and will be adhered to

C—There is to be a council of war held in Chicago on the 2d of next June. If you were ordered to go to the front with the republican banner in your hands, are you too good a soldier to refuse orders, especially in the face of an enemy?

The President—If the Chicago convention cannot agree upon either one of the prominent candidates now before the country there is a large number of dark horses to select from without looking this way. For example there is Washburne of Illinois who would readily unite all the elements of the party as would Hamilton Fish of New York, or Senator Edmunds of Vermont. Either of these gentlemen would certainly be elected.

TEXAS REPUBLICAN CONVENTION

The Grant Men Fail to Carry their Scheme and Compromise on a Meaningless Resolution

SPECIAL DISPATCH TO THE OREGONIAN

AUSTIN March 26.—The state republican convention met in this city for the purpose of choosing delegates to the Chicago convention. Of sixteen delegates interviewed, ten were for Grant including ex Gov Davis. The colored delegates are most bitter against Grant. Sherman was not mentioned although the hall was flooded with his letters [illegible] from headquarters at Washington. An attempt was made by the Grant delegates to pass a resolution instructing the delegates to vote as a unit at Chicago for their candidate but the proposition was met by the anti third term men with spirited and in instances even bitter resistance. The following meaningless resolution was finally adopted as a compromise

While we recognize that Gen Grant is the choice of the republicans of Texas it is considered inexpedient to instruct the delegation to Chicago further than to cast their votes as a unit for president

Ex Gov Davis was elected one of the delegates at large.

End of the Townshend Bill Squabble—The Chinese Appointments.

SPECIAL DISPATCH TO THE OREGONIAN

WASHINGTON March 26.—The deadlock in the house over Garfield's motion concerning the Townshend tariff bill was terminated last night by the adoption of the simple method of approval of Monday's journal, and thereupon withdraw [illegible] the bill from Townshend's and referring it to the committee on ways and means, a procedure which apparently was not thought of until after [illegible] had become too deeply [illegible] in party [illegible] personal [illegible] suggestion [illegible] [illegible]

The surgeon responded promptly shooting the captain in the shoulder and back causing him to fall, and while attempting to renew the shooting, was covered by the surgeon, who threatened to kill him if he made any further effort. THE SOUTH AMERICAN WAR.

A Battle between Land Forces Imminent—An Old American Monitor does Some Good Service.

SPECIAL DISPATCH TO THE OREGONIAN

PANAMA March 23.—A Chilean force of about 10,000 men, with cavalry and abundant artillery, landed at Ilo[illegible] Peru, on the 25th of February. It is about six miles north of Arica where there is a Peruvian force of about 10,000. At a point twenty miles south of Ilo the Chileans have landed a force of 3000 men. An attack is expected by land and sea on Arica. The position of the Peruvian commander is deemed critical. During the landing of the troops a demonstration was made against Arica by the Huascar and Magallanes but they are reported as having been roughly handled by the old American built monitor Manco Capac a vessel which has laid at anchor during the war, rendering no service whatever. She was got under steam and under command of Capt. Moore, of the ill fated Independencia steamed out to meet the Chilean vessels. After half a dozen shots from the 500-pound Rodman guns carried by the Peruvian monitor the Chilean ships got out of range as fast as possible. Peruvian officers report that the Huascar was struck twice by those formidable missiles one shot destroying the upper works of her bow and the other sweeping her deck. The Magallanes is also reported injured

ENGLISH POLITICS.

Gladstone the Principal Figure of the Canvass.

NEW YORK, March 21.—A Tribune cable dispatch from its regular London correspondent gives the latest phases of the electoral campaign which now occupies the attention of the United Kingdom. It says: Gladstone is awakening great enthusiasm in Scotland. The liberals have nominated his son Herbert, for Middlesex and agreed to pay his election expenses. The Irish voters are disposed to support the liberal candidates in British towns. The kingdom is completely absorbed in the elections. The liberals consider their position with the country has decidedly improved during the week. They say Lord Beaconsfield's attempt to force them to assume the defensive has failed. The canvass is everywhere proceeding with redoubled energy and confidence in a liberal triumph is daily increasing. It is expected that Lord Beaconsfield will announce some new and startling coup when parliament has adjourned

Gladstone's Midlothian campaign is the central event of the week, and engrosses the attention of friends and opponents alike. The demonstration at his departure on Thursday has been followed by others evoked by his presence northward. The present enthusiasm is as remarkable as that manifested during his November tour. His speeches at London, Grantham, York, Newcastle and Berwick have struck the key note of the canvass. He insists everywhere on a union among all opponents of the Government, waiving all minor differences

Another dispatch says: The campaign increases in activity. The liberals seem more confident. Their organs predict an overwhelming victory. Gladstone's speeches occupy more space in the newspapers than those of all the other candidates together. Gladstone made a bitter denunciation of Austria in his first speech at Edinburgh. A correspondent reported that the Emperor of Austria had told the British Ambassador that Gladstone disapproved of Austria's foreign policy and that the Emperor hoped Beaconsfield would be successful in the election. Gladstone repeating this statement said if the electors approved Austria's foreign policy he would advise them to vote for the retention of the Beaconsfield ministry. Austria, he said has ever been the unflinching enemy of freedom in every country of Europe and there is not a spot on the whole map where one could place his finger and say: There Austria did good

HONGKONG March [illegible]—Surprise and [illegible] at the fact is expressed by Americans at the refusal of Gen Donovan commanding the British garrison at Hongkong to fire a salute of twenty one guns on Washington's birthday. Governor Hennessy honored the anniversary by displaying the royal standard and issued orders for a salute to military and naval officers. Commodore Smith senior naval officers complied. Gen Donovan pleaded no precedent and declared the salute unauthorized by the Queen's regulations. The matter will be heard of hereafter. Governor Hennessy as commander in chief of all the forces here states he regarded the refusal as an act of insubordination. American ships in eastern waters omit no opportunity of a complimentary salute on every English anniversary

The Imperial Diplomatist—Extraordinary Policy of the Peking Government

The action of the Peking government respecting Chung How late ambassador to Russia astonishes natives and foreigners alike and is still believed by many to be a piece of political deception to mislead outside judgment. The new conviction is gaining ground that the government feels such blind confidence since its victories in Central Asia that nothing will be allowed to obstruct its movements for a complete resumption of lost power. Consequently Chung How is disgraced not for the course he took but for not having pursued that course half far enough. This conjecture obtains support from the remarkable correspondence just concluded between Tsung Li Yamen and foreign legations. The envoys united in a joint memorial alledging twenty distinct violations of treaty by China and claiming redress. Wade British minister was originally reluctant to co-operate fully but finally yielded. Tsung Li Yamen responded by dismissing every complaint refusing even to consider a single one and referring the diplomatists to a copy of the letter addressed by China to the European and American governments demanding a revision of treaties in the Chinese interest and calling for abrogation of ex territorial and other obnoxious provisions. This unexpected demonstration has been kept a secret thus far but a general disclosure is now inevitable.

General Items

O'Malley the new attorney general of Hongkong has arrived and taken office. He is a firm supporter of Governor Hennessy's policy, and will strongly co-operate in resisting the hostile measures of disaffected citizens. The government has also been strengthened by the addition of Ng Choy to the legislative council the first native ever appointed to that body

Correspondence between China and Japan respecting Loo Choo continues amicably. Early this year the Peking government asked if a final settlement on Gen Grant's basis would be agreeable. An affirmative reply was made by the Japanese government and negotiations are quietly proceeding to that end

JOSEPHINE COUNTY REPUBLICAN CONVENTION

Delegates to the State Convention Instructed to Support Blaine Men for the National Convention

A mass meeting of [illegible] republicans of Josephine county was held at Kerbyville on Saturday March 20 for the purpose of electing two delegates to attend the republican state convention to be held at Portland April [illegible]

[illegible] was chosen chairman and J. S. W. Forbes secretary. [illegible] the election of delegates the following resolutions were offered and adopted

Resolved That we believing that nomination of Gen Grant for a third term to the office of president would be alike fatal to [illegible] [illegible] and success of the republican party and the best interests of the nation we instruct the delegates here chosen to oppose [illegible] at Portland of any man as delegate to the national republican convention at Chicago who will favor placing Gen Grant again before the people as a candidate for president.

Resolved That we instruct our delegates to the state convention to support as their first choice for delegates to the national convention at Chicago men who will cordially aid in securing the nomination of Hon Jas G Blaine as the republican candidate for president at the election to be held in November next.

The first resolution was unanimously adopted. The second was carried by a small majority, an amendment to substitute the name of Hon E B Washburne to that of Mr Blaine being defeated by a few votes.

After the above resolutions were disposed of nominations for delegates being in order W A McPherson and Alex White were unanimously chosen, whereupon the convention adjourned

The convention for the nomination of candidates for county officers will not be held until about the 15th of May. INVERNESS

AN OLD PROJECT

A handsome pamphlet anonymously written, published by Putnam's Sons New York furnishes a most interesting history of the Panama canal project which now engrosses so much of the world's attention. It is curious to note that the conception of this enterprise lies far back in history being in fact almost synchronous with the discovery of the isthmus and its position with reference to the two continents and the two oceans. Balboa, crossing the isthmus saw the Pacific ocean in 1513. According to our author one Antonio Galvao in 1528 proposed to Charles V., the then sovereign of Spain, to open communication between the oceans by this isthmian route. Magellan had only a short time before forced his way around the continent of South America and sailed boldly out into the illimitable expanse of the western ocean—being the first who ever burst into that silent sea. Circumnavigation of the globe had shown the relations of its seas and lands and the utility of establishing a route across the American isthmus was instantly apparent. During the reign of Philip II, son and successor of Charles V, plans were drawn and even surveys were made but Philip was so full of his ideas of holy conquest in Europe that the work was never actually begun. William Patterson, founder of the bank of England endeavored to interest William III in the enterprise but failed in spite of powerful arguments. In 1804 Humboldt revived interest in the project by calling attention to nine isthmus routes. In 1814 the Spanish cortes passed a decree for opening a canal across Tehauntepec. In 1825 the Central American republic, through its representative at Washington addressed a note to the state department proposing the co-operation of the United States in promoting the opening of a canal through Nicaragua, and as a consequence a contract was made with Mr Palmer of New York, to construct one. Owing to a failure to obtain the necessary capital the scheme was abandoned. Another abortive attempt, originating in the United States in 1831, is recorded and still another under a resolution of the senate in 1835, was equally unproductive. Engineering science had not yet reached a basis of certainty and in fact for enterprises of this magnitude it is still in no small degree tentative and experimental. More is likely to be known on the subject some years after the project at the American isthmus shall have been seriously undertaken.

The first survey across the state of Nicaragua was begun in 1837 by Lieut Baily an English officer of marines, employed by the Central American government and the work was accomplished in two years. Gen Morazan attempted to raise capital in Europe but the overthrow of the government again postponed action. In 1839 a memorial from a number of leading merchants of Philadelphia and New York to congress petitioned the national legislature to negotiate with other nations for the purpose of securing forever, by suitable treaty stipulations, 'the free and equal right of navigating such canal to all nations.' No action was taken. In 1844 M. Castellon, of Nicaragua, visited France for the purpose of interesting the government of Louis Philippe in the Nicaragua route, but found M. Guizot committed to that of Panama. Louis Napoleon was then a prisoner at Ham. In 1846 the Nicaraguan government granted a charter to the canal Napoleon de Nicaragua, on the understanding that he should undertake the work, and after his escape he published in London a pamphlet on the canal. Political events recalled him to France and interrupted his connection with the enterprise for a time.

Discovery of gold in California gave a great impulse to the effort to get a route across the isthmus. The construction of the Panama railroad was the immediate result. In 1849 the American, Atlantic and Pacific Ship Canal company was formed to undertake the Nicaraguan route, but this, too, was not a successful operation, although surveys were begun in 1850. Under Louis Napoleon, after he became ruler of France, energetic measures were taken to organize a company for the opening of the San Juan canal route, but after laying the foundations of the city of Eliciana near Fort San Carlos, money ceased to be forthcoming and the enterprise was abandoned. The outbreak of the Franco-Prussian war terminated another French attempt of the Nicaraguan canal. No king is said, it will be observed, in this connection of the Panama, Tehuantepec and Darien routes. During Gen. Grant's administration the first full and complete surveys of the various routes were made and were examined by a commission composed of Gen. Humphreys, Superintendent Patterson, of the coast survey, and Admiral Ammen, who, in February, 1876, reported in favor of the Nicaragua route, in which Gen Grant and Admiral Ammen have recently been taking so deep an interest. The Paris canal congress of 1879 is yet fresh in popular recollection and the division of opinion resulting from it hardly requires restatement here.

One object of the writer from whose book we derive part of the foregoing summary is to prove what President Hayes in his recent message insisted upon, namely, that our government shall have control of the canal when opened. He goes further, and demonstrates that one traditional policy as laid down in the Monroe doctrine prohibits the building of any canal through the isthmus by a foreign corporation. It is pretty certain that our people will be disposed to maintain this principle as a measure of prudence and future safety.

AN URGENT MATTER

It is time to speak plain words about the Columbia river bar. Yesterday a correspondent of THE OREGONIAN did good service in this behalf, and to-day another correspondent does a like thing. So far is it from being necessary to get up a scare and panic about the alleged shoaling and increasing dangers of the bar that in fact these things may with confidence be pronounced imaginary and it is therefore meet that we turn from unsupported conjecture to practical facts. That the bar is shoaling we have seen no reason whatever to believe; that the loss of the Dilharree was due to blundering incompetency and to the want of tugs of sufficient power is next to certain. The result of the investigation before the British vice consul in this city makes necessary an investigation by the state board of pilot commissioners with such further action as their findings may require. We have no doubt that there is as great depth of water at the entrance of the Columbia river as there ever was, and all we want is intelligent and efficient service there. And this the country must have. The service at the bar under the existing law is a monopoly which exists to make all the present profits it can out of the commerce of the Columbia without regard for the future. It is represented at every session of the legislature and there makes a fight for its own interest and for the defeat of reform. At the rates allowed by law its profits are enormous and yet the service it renders is extremely inefficient as compared with the wants and importance of our commerce. Our commercial men must take hold of this subject. We must have powerful tugs, lower rates of towage and good pilots. When we get such service at the mouth of the Columbia river as it is easily possible to obtain we shall have an end of disasters.

There appears to be music in democratic circles in this county. Two communications printed in another place both from life-long democrats foreshadow the proceedings agreed on for the convention to-day. One main feature of the contest is a struggle for the chairmanship of the state central committee. It will be remembered that Tilden sent out [illegible] to Oregon four years ago and as more is expected this year the contest is to see who is to get to handle it. It is reported Mr T [illegible] is pushing for the chairmanship. He would be able to measure up against the fund after certain expert methods which would give a lesson even to the sage of Gramercy Park in the usufruct business.

Now that we are about to import an obelisk it is not likely that congress will adjourn without passing an act to protect obelisks. Some man will be able to show that such an act is necessary to foster a young and struggling industry and newspapers devoted to "protection" will indignantly demand to know if the manufacture of obelisks in this country is to be forced to compete with the imported products of Egyptian slave labor of the time of the Pharaohs. Since our laws protect everything but obelisks, let us have courage to do justice also to the American obelisk maker.

The New York Truth publishes the following obituary of a religious cotemporary:

The Daily Witness died of scantiness of breath and capital on Saturday March 6th aged eight years and a few days. It passed away in the full faith of an hereafter and in the continued belief that Christian promises go much further than Christian fulfillments. The good the deceased did at one cent a day can never be gauged by worldly standards. Enough to say that it was a glory to faith—and a mighty bad newspaper.

Senator Conkling having been asked whether he would allow the use of his name as Presidential candidate while Grant is in the field the Senator writes: "I would not place myself in his way, deeply as I value the presence of friends who deem me worthy of so great a trust." To what sublime heights of self sacrifice can truly great natures rise!

Oscar king of the Scandinavians, who dabbles in literature, recently criticised very severely a new work of the Norwegian poet Bjornstjerne Bjornson. The poet lost his temper and not only called the king a contemptible and malicious criticaster but also challenged him to fight a duel. Kings must be more careful how they criticise subjects.

Kearney has a sand lot but no sand. Brawler as he is he is said to live in continual terror and it is certain that he 'funks' whenever a crisis seems to be approaching. His many expressions of fear lest he receive bodily harm appear to take him out of the list of the valiant who never taste of death but once.

Great developments are promised this year at the mines of Deadwood. A local estimate places the expected produce of the mines for the present year at $12 000 000. This is based on operations now being carried on. The stamps of all the paying mines are being doubled, and the rush is growing better as developments progress.

Wm M. Cooper founder of the Coopershop refreshment saloon in Philadelphia where over 600,000 men were fed on the way to the front and tenderly cared for on their return from the battlefields of the war for the union, was buried in that city a few days ago. He leaves a family destitute, and a fund for their relief has been started.

It is reported to Watkinds, or through Watkinds, as we learn, that 'Bush is ramsackin' the archives' and will soon have 'a terrible dose' ready as a rejoinder to Watkinds' last letter. It is not unlikely. If the "ramsackin'" is complete, the result is likely to be some figures which have never yet had an airing.

More than one-fourth of the entire revenue of the United States from customs is derived from the single article of sugar. The yearly importation into this country of this great commercial staple amounts to $100 000,000 and it is distributed among 45 000 000 of people to whom it is one of the necessaries of life.

Cincinnati hotel keepers are charging such exorbitant prices for entertainment during democratic convention week that they have been warned by the local committee of arrangements that there is yet plenty of time to take the convention elsewhere.

Joaquin Miller is writing and will shortly bring out a drama entitled 'Home Sweet Home.' Another proof of man's proneness to write without knowing what he is writing about.

MRS LITT considered by ladies of taste and judgment to be the Leading Dressmaker of Portland can be consulted at her elegant brick structure

Corner of Third and Alder Streets, Portland Oregon

A NEW IDEA.

In years past ladies have often been disappointed by having material slaughtered by inexperienced dressmakers and when the garment was completed

THE CRY WAS, NO FIT!

MR. LITT as usual in the lead has proposed to us to place before the public the following

FACTS!

For instance: A lady desires a dress and finds it at A B's store or can choose material in his store. MR. LITT will buy the material and pay for it, make it up, and when done if the dress is not a perfect fit the customer can cheerfully leave it without any expense or risk.

SUCH IS THE PROPOSITION.

And the only reason we can give for such an important proposal is that MRS LITT is the most successful tailor on the coast.

SATURDAY MORNING, MARCH 27 1880

WEATHER PROBABILITIES

SPECIAL DISPATCH TO THE OREGONIAN

WASHINGTON, March 27—12:30 A. M.—Pacific: Cloudy weather, occasional rains.

CITY.

THE NEHALEM ROAD.—Capt. E. E. Brand writes Surveyor Campbell of East Portland that he is, with 17 men on the divide about half way between Dairy creek and the Nehalem river. These men all belong in the Nehalem valley, and three weeks ago made their way through the snow to the south side of the mountain where supplies can be obtained while they open the road back to their homes across the mountain. They are working in snow two to three feet deep and expect to get their road open to the river in about twenty days. The reported death of the little daughter of Mr Backus by starvation, we are glad to learn, was incorrect. The settlers, it is true, have suffered many privations from storm and flood during the winter past, but have never been without some sort of food.

DEATH OF JOHN STARR.—Mr. David Monnastes received a dispatch yesterday morning from New Tacoma, announcing the death at that place at about 6 o clock, A. M., of Mr John Starr, who will be remembered by many as an early and prominent citizen of Portland. He came to this city in 1851 and for some years engaged with Chas Birdsall in the hotel business, and was connected with other enterprises. For the past few years he has lived on the Sound and has been with his brother L. M Starr engaged in steamboating. A coffin will be sent from this city to-morrow, and Mr Monnastes and others will probably go over to attend the funeral. It is possible that the body will be brought to Portland for burial.

DEATH OF D. FARG-ALY.—Mr D Farg Aly, who is well remembered by all old Portland residents, died quite suddenly at his room on Stark street, between Second and Third, yesterday afternoon. He had been complaining for a few days past, but no anxiety was felt for his condition by his friends. Yesterday afternoon he told a friend who called to see him that he was feeling bad. The friend told him that he would take him to his house, and as Farg-Aly was not able to walk he started over to the stable to order a hack. Returning a few moments later, he was shocked to find the old man dead. He had evidently died without a struggle. The deceased was aged 64 years and, and had resided in Portland for 28 years.

[illegible] A. O. U. W.—Last night, the [illegible] of Ancient Order of United Workmen was instituted by Deputy Grand Master [illegible] hall, corner First and Taylor streets. The name of the new organization, which starts with 27 members, is Portland Lodge. The officers elected are as follows: Past Master, John A. Child; master workman, J. E. Boynton; general foreman, [illegible]; overseer, Lee McGowan; financier, L. L. Williams; receiver, H. R. Alden; [illegible] A. Tivall; inside watch, S. D [illegible]; outside watch, John O'Connor. Dr. [illegible] was elected examining physician.

[illegible]'S BENEFIT.—Next Friday, April 2d, Miss Senora Wetherell will be the recipient of a complimentary benefit at the Market Theater. The purpose of the [illegible], which will be of a dramatic and musical character, is to raise funds [illegible] to enable the young lady to go East and complete her dramatic and elocutionary education. A most excellent programme will be presented on the occasion. Mrs. D. F. Smith, the elocutionist, has kindly volunteered and will appear in scenes [illegible].

ACCIDENTALLY KILLED.—A correspondent [illegible] the Cascades sends the following: [illegible] report reaches us that Joseph [illegible] was accidentally killed a few days ago [illegible] on White Salmon, near Glen[illegible]. It seems that Marks was clearing up land and in cutting off a sapling that was bent over with the snow the butt [illegible] striking him on the head, killing him instantly. Mr. Marks was a steady, [illegible], and well known on the [illegible] the Cascades.

[illegible].—The case of the state of Oregon vs [illegible] Stompf, charged with arson, was submitted to the jury yesterday morning. After deliberating for some time, the jury returned a verdict of acquittal, whereupon the defendant was discharged. C. J. [illegible], who was jointly indicted, will probably be discharged on motion of the district attorney.

"[illegible] OVER-POPULATION."—J. J. Owen, the well known California journalist, will deliver his lecture on the above suggestive theme to men only, at Turn-Halle, to-morrow (Sunday) evening, commencing at 8 o'clock. Mr. Owen invites the attention of [illegible] to this lecture.

[illegible] WAGON.—A team owned by [illegible] Gundel ran away yesterday afternoon, and as they came tearing down Front street struck Geo. Scofield's spring wagon, smashing the wheels, bed and top. Damage [illegible] will be borne by Gundel.

DEMOCRATIC CONVENTION.—The democratic county convention will convene at the Masonic hall this Saturday afternoon at 1 o'clock, for the purpose of electing delegates to attend the democratic state convention.

[illegible].—The Baptist sociable last night was a pleasant and successful [illegible]. The literary and musical exercises were brief and rarely [illegible], and the refreshments served afterward good and abundant.

THE TEMPERANCE MEETING.—The open [illegible] meeting to-night will be addressed by Mr. David Newsome of Marion county. Excellent music will be furnished. Everybody welcome.

P. S. F. S.—The second regular annual meeting of the Portland Seamen's Friend Society will be held in the Congregational church to-morrow evening at 7.30.

ADOLPH CREMIEUX.

It has been heretofore announced that memorial services in honor of this distinguished French statesman, who died on the 10th of February, will be held at Beth Israel synagogue in this city to-morrow evening. Similar services were held in Chicago and New York on the 7th of March. Hon. E B Washburne had a personal acquaintance with Mons. Cremieux, and delivered the eulogy at Chicago before the Sinai Reformed Congregation of Hebrews. There were several speakers at the Temple Emanu El in New York. Adolph L. Sanger was of the number, who delivered an eloquent address, of which the following is an extract:

The revolution of 1848 and the commune of 1870 found him in the front of the strife but never on the side of the rabble. In these crises, amid the contention and animosities of political factions, his conscientious sense of duty and unswerving integrity sustained his every action, and neither deprivation of political power nor prison bars could turn him from the line of conduct he had formed. And when peace again dawned upon France, of all her sons whom she sought out to invest with the reins of government, none bore the test of trust worthiness in stronger colors than Cremieux. He was elected a senator for life, and when death came to end his useful and honorable career, he was buried with public honors and among the mourners were numbered the best and noblest citizens of the French republic.

Reason assigned for executive clemency on account of extra services and good conduct. Lewis Smith, sentenced Nov 13 1878 from Umatilla county for the crime of larceny to 18 months imprisonment. Commuted on account of uniform good conduct.

"A WORTHY CHARITY"

Under the above caption the Oregon Churchman says:

A committee of ladies in Portland have undertaken to secure a definite and permanent income for the support of a "Mother's bed" for lying-in women, at the Good Samaritan Hospital. This is a most worthy and needed charity, and we most earnestly hope that this effort will be successful. In a country and community like this, there are many poor and needy people and strangers destitute of help, to whom such an offer of christian sympathy and service would be a great blessing. There are a great many families among the new settlers about the country, in cold and comfortless houses with one room for father mother and children, miles away from any other human habitation, physicians or nurse, where the terror and sufferings of child-birth are simply appalling. What a boon to such a poor mother, in her hour of need would the free offer of this charity be? We think there should be no difficulty whatever in obtaining the requisite monthly income to support this bed. And we do not see why such a charity should be left alone to these monthly subscriptions. It might be so in the minds of christian mothers, as to receive many a thank offering from those who abound in every worldly comfort that would in time provide for it a permanent and sufficient endowment.

The committee in charge of this fund are Mrs R Weeks Mrs Robert Hewitt and Mrs. Bronaugh. The ladies will receive subscriptions toward the support of the bed, and also applications for its benefits. Contributions for its support may also be sent to Gen Joseph Eaton, Treasurer of the Good Samaritan Hospital.

PILOT HEWETT TO BLAME

FOR LOSS OF THE "DILHARREE."

The Naval Court Finds that he Gave Peacock Spit too Wide a Berth and Struck Sands Opposite—The Story of Bad Steering Disproved

The court of inquiry which was called to investigate the cause of the loss of the British bark Dilharree concluded its sessions and dissolved at noon yesterday. [illegible] persons examined were the officers and [illegible] of the crew of the lost bark. The points developed in the testimony, which give additional information to that already published in THE OREGONIAN, are given below, with an extract from the court's very concise report.

The statement that the vessel steered badly seems to have been wrong. Capt Moore and [illegible] state that while the Dilharree had not extra steering qualities she was at least up to the average. [illegible] said to an OREGONIAN reporter yesterday that he had sailed up Sallow River without tugs and never [illegible] reported her. [illegible] at the time [illegible] gives a different version of the [illegible] told of Captain Bill Johnson who is reported as having berated the steersman for neglect of orders but was informed that it was the fault of the bark not the seaman. Captain Moore said that the steersman was giving Captain Johnson a good deal of back talk when Johnson started for the wheel house with the intention of striking him but Moore interfered saying "this kind of thing won't do on my ship."

The refusal of bar pilot Hewett to testify is very much regretted by the gentlemen composing the court and they so state in their report. He might have been able to give information on a point which under the evidence adduced lays the whole blame of the disaster at his door.

It appears from the evidence and statements in the official log book that on March 10 the wind being light from W N W the ship weighed anchor at 11 A M with Pilot Hewett in charge and in tow of two steam tugs with anchors in readiness to be let go, hawsers ready to be cut or slipped if required and two men at the wheel. That in proceeding down towards the bar the pilot gave Peacock spit running out from Cape Hancock too wide a berth thereby encroaching too far on the south side of the channel upon which the ship grounded.

From the survey report of Capt G H Jisson assistant engineer dated Dec 14 18[illegible] a copy of which is in evidence marked [illegible]—it appears that Peacock spit has made out about 1000 feet to the S E since the previous survey June to October 1878, and that there is no buoy on the spit to indicate the change. About half a minute before the ship struck the helm was ordered hard up [illegible]. After she struck tugs were ordered to pull well out on the starboard bow and after sails set. The vessel not moving the cargo was jettisoned until the ebb made. Both steam tugs left the ship, one proceeding to Astoria for assistance.

At 1 to P M the ebb tide making very strongly after-sails were hauled down. At 5 30 the cargo was again jettisoned. At 8 15 the starboard anchor was let go to prevent the ship forging further on the sand. Up to 11 P M the vessel made very little water but at that time a strong wind sprung up from W N W, the vessel striking very heavily and water increasing to nine inches. The ship's head moved to the northward, the vessel then appeared to be afloat, and rockets were sent up for assistance but none came and port anchor was let go to keep her from going further on the sand. At 11 A M the following day (near 11 the flag was hoisted for a tug to come and try to tow the ship off at high water but it was impossible.

THE VERDICT

After due deliberation and consideration of the facts and circumstances as detailed in the evidence the court finds:

First—That the bark Dilharree was lost through default of Pilot Hewitt in giving Peacock spit too wide a berth thereby grounding the ship on the south side of the channel, from which cause the vessel became a total wreck. The court regrets that Pilot Hewett could not be induced to attend and give evidence.

Second—That had the pilot taken the precaution of using the lead after leaving Baker's bay and before grounding he might have had indications that he was approaching the south bank.

Third—That the suggestion that the vessel was lost through her bad steering qualities is entirely disproved by the evidence.

Fourth—That the master officers and crew are not to blame in any respect having a duly licensed pilot on board whom the master had every reason to believe competent and also having everything prepared for any emergency that might occur. Furthermore that all possible was done by the master and crew to save the ship and cargo but it is the opinion of the court that had assistance been at hand when asked for about 11 P M of the 10th of March, there is every probability that the ship might have been got off.

Fifth—That as the ship's head kept working round by the west to north the master acted prudently in not letting go the starboard anchor before he did, as it would in all probability have gone through her and had the port anchor been let go it would have tended to keep her on the shoal.

It seems to the court that if a buoy had been placed upon Peacock spit the pilot could not have committed such a grave error of judgment and that a freer use of the lead would be advisable in all cases in navigating the Columbia river.

THE CAVEAT PREVIOUSLY FILED.

"Blow Out" Can't Have the Patent.

TO THE EDITOR OF THE OREGONIAN

Every one who reads your paper knows that you keep it right on the crest of the highest wave of progressive thought in the advocacy of reforms and the repudiation of shams.

Of the many correspondents whose lucubrations have found place in your columns, no one deserves better at the hands of an appreciative reading public than "Blow Out" in your issue of the 20th inst., under the head of "The Loss of the Dilharree."

As an Oregonian a mariner for many years and of some experience in the pilot service, I confess to a sense of indignation for many months past at the traducings of the Columbia river which have gone forth so generally unchallenged, to the detriment of our commercial and maritime interests.

It needs but a very limited maritime observation to find out, by comparison with such rivers as the Mississippi and the Hoogly and such perilous routes as vessels have to take to reach London (after passing Dover straits), or the numerous ports of the Baltic, that the Columbia river is not an unusually dangerous bar.

"Taking advantage of the weather and tide," as "Blow Out" justly suggests, "has to be done in every barred port in the world with tug boats of sufficient power to constitute them reliable in every exigency, with a wholesome competitive pilot system, untrammeled by the prejudices of monopolists and the whole placed under the joint supervision of a board of pilot commissioners and a board of underwriters we should no longer hear of the dangers of the Columbia river bar which are at present so unjustly bruited abroad by the thoughtless and by interested parties. Ship masters have frequently expressed themselves as aggrieved at the rates of pilotage and tugs and delays but in my extensive intercourse with them for years past I have not found one who has particularly emphasized the perils of the Columbia river bar."

Indeed there is comparatively little opportunity to do so for, as stated by the sterling, good common sense of "Blow Out," "left to itself with its volume of water flowing from the drain of 200 000 square miles there can be no question but that the law of gravitation will do its work." Indeed the constancy of its channel courses and the average depth of its (20 to 28 feet) water constitute the Columbia a much less dangerous river than others familiar to every ship master that comes to Portland.

Is it not time that we quit playing into the hands of our Puget Sound and San Francisco rivals by tacitly admitting the truthfulness of their outcry against the Columbia river bar?

It is now nearly fifteen months ago that I urged upon some of the leading men of Portland the outfit of a powerful tug similar to the R. B. Forbes of Boston or the Hauster and Columbus of Calcutta, such as are found in the English and Irish channels and on the Clyde ready to take hold of any and all comers, and on the alert to bring them in as tide and weather will permit.

The board of trade of Portland to day could not do a better thing for themselves, for the shipping interest of the Columbia and for the trade of this city than at once to open a subscription for two steam tugs of twice the power of the Goliah on Puget Sound, nor do we think there would be any difficulty in securing $10 000 for such a meritorious undertaking. Indeed we have vastly more faith in a powerful fleet of tugs as than any attempt to introduce Capt Eads' jetty system at the mouth of the Columbia. By all means let us have one or more powerful tugs before the next wheat fleet arrives. Who will move to rescue our good name?

FIXED IN ADVANCE

The Bush-Thayer-Bellinger Ring Progress Apace

PORTLAND March 26 1880

TO THE EDITOR OF THE OREGONIAN

It has transpired that the generals trainers and tricksters of the above trio met in secret conclave at the office of W H Effinger in this city yesterday and after gravely discussing the interests of their masters and carefully considering the probabilities of their masters defeat should the democracy of the county be permitted to proceed in accordance with the time honored usages of that party, it was concluded that "things must be fixed up," and that 18 collars be provided marked B T & B all ready for adjustment to-morrow. Then with the assurance of a certain would be county official of a second term the following selections were made for delegates to the democratic state convention as suitable to carry out in that body the wishes of the before mentioned illustrious trio:

Al Zieber
B O Hara
W J Kelly
R Short
R M Ratt[illegible]
A J Knott
F D McKee
J J Martin
A Noltner
Fred Holman
Fred Strong
W J Quirk
J K Wiley
T M Richardson
A F Newell
J R Gatten
R Gerdes
A B Bachman

The latter name nearly being left out still got in in time to catch his eighteenth collar.

There is to be an open meeting held in this city to-morrow—that is a democratic county convention so called. The only duties expected of this body are to ratify the above selection of delegates and to assist the aforesaid generals trainers and chief tricksters—not omitting the afore mentioned second termer—in adjusting the 18 collars. The ratification part will doubtless be easy enough to accomplish but the adjusting business may require some degree of skill in that line as it is hinted that one feller on the list will buck. However, walk up gentlemen and do your duty. Satisfaction awaits you in the near future. After the June squabble is over you will hear your present embryo candidate for judicial honors in chorus with the others of the trio exclaim From my expectations, what a falling off oh my countrymen. They will have been left.

OLD LINER.

Another Advance Copy of the "Proceedings"

TO THE EDITOR OF THE OREGONIAN

The following persons will be voted for to day in the democratic convention as delegates to the democratic state convention to be held at Albany April 7 1880:

Robert Shortell
T Noltner
A J Knott,
J K Wiley
W J Quirk
W J Kelly
B O Hara,
P J Martin
R Gerdes
J R Gatten
T M Richardson
E J Jeffery
R M Rafferty
F V Holman
A F Newell
AB Bachman
F R Strong
R D McKee

We specially commend to the suffrage of the convention Mr T Noltner. As the famous "ninety dollar measuring worm," he has acquired a reputation as an expert in politics which particularly fits him for the chairmanship of the state central executive committee, to which he aspires. The other gentlemen stand on their own merits and have had nothing to do with "fixing up" this ticket. But it was fixed up.

ARGUS

CITY HOMESTEAD.

THE LAND IN THIS ENTERPRISE LIES adjoining the city and is only from ten to fifteen minutes walk from the court house and a less distance than that from one of the best public schools in the city. It is divided into

One Thousand and Twenty-Four Lots,

Fifty by one hundred feet in size with streets sixty feet wide. Two hundred of these lots will be reserved for those who desire to improve and build this summer and fall. These lots will be sold on the same liberal terms that are offered in the Homestead proper.

Price.

All lots will be sold for $100 each payable in instalments of $5 per month or the small sum of 16⅔ cents per day. No interest will be charged and a good and sufficient Bond for Deed will be given upon the payment of the first installment of $5, and a Warranty Deed upon receipt of last installment, both without expense to purchaser.

Appreciation of Values.

By reference to The Oregonian of Feb 15th, it will be found that city property has advanced twenty five per cent during the past year. As there has been no excitement, the rise is wholly attributable to the increasing immigration and the growing confidence inspired by our numerous railroad enterprises and the development of our many natural resources, that have hitherto slumbered for lack of energetic men to develop them.

It is True,

That of all real estate investments the homestead plan is the best and safest, as all who invest are interested in making the whole property more valuable. To illustrate: Suppose A builds a house on his lot and B owns a lot adjoining; B gets the benefit of A's improvement, while A is not injured thereby. This philosophy will apply to the entire property.

We have donated a lot to each of the principal churches for church purposes.

In addition to the above two lots are set apart for public school purposes.

Division.

The division of this property will take place when the lots are all sold or, in any event, not later than the 28th February, 1881,

at the Mechanics' Pavilion commencing at 10 o'clock A M. Public notice of which will be given by publication in two principal journals in the State.

It will be made in the manner decided upon by a majority of the purchasers in the Homestead. Parties interested may appoint proxies to act for them if they desire to do so. Parties who do not attend at the time of the division either in person or by proxy will be bound by the plan settled upon by the majority of those who do so attend.

It is suggested by the purchasers that division might be made by placing the number of each lot and block in a wheel or box and the name of each party interested in the homestead in another—then a name will be drawn from one and a number from the other and the lot so drawn deeded to the person whose name is so drawn when all payments are made.

All but the first installment must be paid at the Banking house of Ladd & Tilton in the city of Portland.

Persons from a Distance

Desiring a share may forward $5 00 to the General Manager and a bond will be immediately forwarded.

Money may be forwarded by registered letter money order or Wells Fargo & Co's Express at my risk.

SATURDAY MORNING MARCH 27 1880.

FINANCE AND COMMERCE.

Financial.

FRIDAY EVENING March 26

In the local market the day has been quiet and merchants have had more than their usual leisure There are no new features in the San Francisco breadstuffs markets the only change noted being in sugars which are reported ⅛ off all round The dried fruit trade is somewhat excited and holders are advancing prices with seeming confidence in the future A San Francisco firm offered 9½c per pound for ten tons of Plummer dried apples but could not buy at less than 11c Dealers are holding them generally at 10c@11c

THE REAL ESTATE MARKET

The following special report of the real estate market is furnished THE OREGONIAN by Clark & Upton real estate brokers and architects

The number of transfers recorded during the past week is 28 amounting to $34 957 distributed as follows 11 city 11 country and 11 East Portland as compared with $88 4 0 and 28 transactions the week before when the amount was made unusually heavy by one $60 000 sale. The market continues active and general confidence in city and suburban properties as an investment at present rates appears to be daily growing It is our opinion that the current prices for business properties and residence sites that are easily accessible from business centers will be more than maintained as the season advances A time of general confidence like the present is likely to bring into existence numerous visionary township schemes to enable holders of valueless outside properties to foist them upon the public at high prices Such movements should be viewed with suspicion and distrust as they can but result in loss to investors On the other hand holders and purchasers of business properties and of good residence sites within the corporate limits have good reasons to anticipate the steady maintenance of present values if not a considerable growth as the year rolls on An examination of the records of the week will reveal the fact that the purchases have been scattered through every quarter of the city

SAN FRANCISCO CHARTERS AND MARKETS

[SPECIAL DISPATCH TO THE OREGONIAN]

SAN FRANCISCO March 26 —The Commercial News review of freight and charters says Only one wheat charter has been drawn during the past week which is sufficient evidence of the dullness of the freight market The vessel taken was a first class iron ship and the rate paid £2 for orders is one that iron ships now in port seem unwilling to accept. Wooden tonnage is also held above the views of shippers, who in the face of a declining English wheat market and relatively higher rates here for wheat cannot afford to pay prices that tempts holders now that the new crop is so near at hand Outside business has shown some improvement, several vessels having accepted coal or lumber charters For the balance of the year light business in wheat and freights is expected, as choice grain is scarce Fine showers the past few days have extended over a wide area and have done much good to growing crops, and a large yield of wheat is confidently expected

Rice—Last sales mixed China were at 5c. Holders now seem to demand $5 10@5 15 per 100 lbs. Additional supplies arrived to day

Sugar—Prices of refined were reduced half a cent per lb all round to-day. The new schedule is as follows Patent cube in bbls 11c A crushed 11c, extra powdered 11¼c fine crushed 11c dry granulated 10⅝c extra granulated 10⅜c golden C 9c D 8⅝c, extra C 9⅛c for lots in bbls and half bbls ⅛c more, and boxes ⅜c more.

Wheat-Market stagnant and unchanged.

Onions—As high as $2 was paid to day for a choice article; good to choice at $1 75@2 ordinary $1 40@1 60

Wool—The market has not yet fairly opened. Receipts have been nothing for two weeks past from several directions mainly from southern counties, but probably 300 bales will cover all as yet arrived Buyers are said to be in the interior making purchases It may be a week or more before established prices for several grades can be given. For consignments thus far received, we quote burry at 27½@22½c and free at 30@35c

Hides and skins—Market continues to improve slowly under encouraging eastern advices Local dealers pay the following cash rates, dry hides usual selection, 19@19½, culls one-third less.

NEW YORK FREIGHTS AND MARKETS.

[SPECIAL DISPATCH TO THE OREGONIAN]

NEW YORK. March 26.—There is still very little doing at the wharves of California vessels and the only item of note is the charter at New York of the ship Glandon 1896 to follow the bark Colum in Simonson & Howe s line

Markets generally quiet,

Flour dull and weak.

Wheat—½c@1c lower, moderately active.

Barley in better demand.

Gold and Stock Company's Reports.

SAN FRANCISCO March 26

Receipts 1100 qr sks flour—2060 ctls wheat—4000 sks potatoes—22,000 doz eggs. Sugars off half a cent all round.

Butter—Market very soft we quote same as before.

Eggs—California choice, 21c Western and Utah, 20c, The market is very brisk but the undertone is soft.

Bacon, Hams and Lard—Market manifests a steady firm feeling with great confidence in present value and must advance as trade revives.

Bags—Machine sewed—There has been an increased inquiry together with larger sales market probably affected by rains.

Wheat—Same indisposition amongst buyers and the market can by no means be called better but holders not anxious.

Oats—Feed, Puget Sound sold $1 20@1 35 for fair to best.

Onions firm at $2

Dried Apples in good demand.

Hops—California, 40c,

On account of to day being observed as a holiday we are without our usual European and Eastern market reports.

LIVER PILLS,

FOR THE CURE OF

Hepatitis or Liver Complaint

[illegible]

Symptoms of a Diseased Liver

PAIN in the right side, under the edge of the ribs increases on pressure sometimes the pain is in the left side the patient is rarely able to lie on the left side sometimes the pain is felt under the shoulder blade, and it frequently extends to the top of the shoulder and is sometimes mistaken for rheumatism in the arm The stomach is affected with loss of appetite and sickness the bowels in general are costive sometimes alternative with lax the head is troubled with pain accompanied with a dull heavy sensation in the back part There is generally a considerable loss of memory accompanied with a painful sensation of having left undone something which ought to have been done A slight dry cough is sometimes an attendant The patient complains of weariness and debility he is easily startled his feet are cold or burning, and he complains of a prickly sensation of the skin his spirits are low, and although he is satisfied that exercise would be beneficial to him, yet he can scarcely summon up fortitude enough to try it In fact he distrusts every remedy Several of the above symptoms attend the disease but cases have occurred where few of them existed yet examination of the body, after death has shown the LIVER to have been extensively deranged

AGUE AND FEVER

DR C McLANE'S LIVER PILLS, IN CASES OF AGUE AND FEVER when taken with Quinine are productive of the most happy results No better cathartic can be used preparatory to, or after taking Quinine We would advise all who are afflicted with this disease to give them a FAIR TRIAL

For all bilious derangements, and as a simple purgative they are unequaled

BEWARE OF IMITATIONS

The genuine are never sugar coated

Every box has a red wax seal on the lid with the impression DR McLANE'S LIVER PILLS

The genuine McLANE'S LIVER PILLS bear the signatures of C McLANE and FLEMING BROS on the wrappers

Insist upon having the genuine DR C McLANE'S LIVER PILLS prepared by Fleming Bros of Pittsburgh, Pa, the market being full of imitations of the name McLane, spelled differently but same pronunciation

Such as SPERMATORRHEA or SEMINAL WEAKNESS or LOSS OF PERFECT VITALITY Nearly two thirds of all the Chronic Diseases spring either directly or indirectly from a derangement of the sexual system and yet this subject is neglected by the majority of the Medical Profession

I know that persons who are unfortunate enough to be afflicted by any form of sexual disease have a delicacy in calling upon the proper physician in time from a sense of modesty and sometimes from ignorance and permit these diseases to exist until their constitutions become corrupted their organization broken down and the hope of future happiness blighted until death becomes a welcome messenger to carry them out of their miserable existence

MIDDLE AGED MEN.

There are many at the age of thirty to sixty who are troubled with too frequent evacuations of the bladder, often accompanied by a slight smarting or burning sensation and a weakening of the system in a manner the patient cannot account for. On examining the urinary deposits a ropy sediment will often be found and sometimes small particles of albumen will appear, or the color will be of a thin milkish hue, again changing to a dark and torpid appearance. There are many men who die of this difficulty, ignorant of the cause which is the second stage of seminal weakness Dr S will guarantee a perfect cure in all such cases and a healthy restoration of the genito-urinary organs
